

Colour in an Olive Nymph

Olives are a type of riverfly. Olive eggs are laid on water, then young olives (known as nymphs) live underwater until they are ready to go to the water surface and turn into a fly with wings. Enjoy colouring in this nymph!

